

Medical Laboratory Technology

The Profession

If you like science, problem solving and working independently, MLT may be a good choice for you.

MLTs work with other healthcare professionals in the detection, diagnosis and treatment of disease.

Excellent job prospects.

MLTs work in the areas of:

- Blood Bank
- Microbiology
- Hematology
- Immunology
- Coagulation
- Chemistry
- Urinalysis
- Molecular Diagnostics
- Phlebotomy

The Program

The program can be completed in two years resulting in an Associates of Technical Science degree.

All prerequisites are available at WVC or can be done at other colleges.

The program is available in the following locations:

- Wenatchee
- Omak
- Moses Lake
- Walla Walla
- Colville
- Pendleton, OR
- Medford, OR
- Lewiston, ID
- Upon request

Most sites do not require going to Wenatchee for any training.

3-year average graduation rate-94%, job placement rate-100%, BOC pass rate-97%

For more information, Google WVC MLT or email the program director at ptracy@wvc.edu AA/EO / wvc.edu/EO